

Elvis Presley Stars on Worldwide Stamps

The announcement of a new United States stamp for Elvis Presley reminds us that there have been many previous stamps for “The King.” This includes the 1993 U.S. stamp that is still the best selling commemorative in U.S. history.

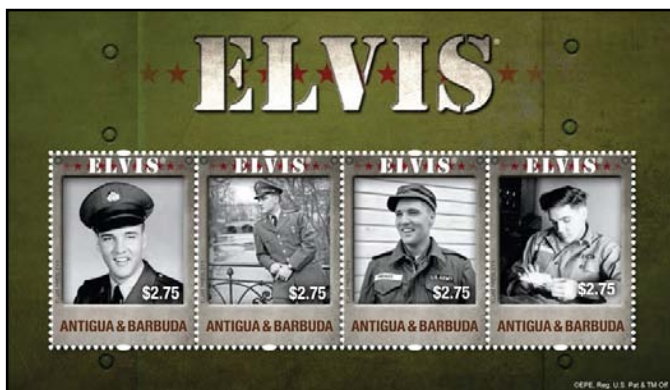

Among other nations, the Inter-Governmental Philatelic

Corp. has a data base of Elvis stamps that are still available. Shown here are a few of the many stamps that can be found at the IGPC site.

For details on these and many other worldwide Elvis Presley stamps and souvenir sheets, please go to the Inter-Governmental website, www.igpc.com.

From Grenada: Elvis in the Movies, in a “Live A Little, Love A Little” souvenir sheet issued April 12, 2005.

From Antigua and Barbuda: Elvis in the Army, issued September 11, 2009. During his 1958-1960 service, Elvis donated his pay to charity.

From St. Kitts: Elvis Presley Classic Hits Souvenir Sheet, issued August 12, 1993. This appears to be a forerunner to the USPS Music Icons designs that are intended to look like 45 RPM record jackets.

From Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, “The Future King of Rock and Roll” on the stamp as a young boy with his mother and father, issued November 14, 2011. Another issue that has the appearance of a record jacket.
